Social Networking for Books

Confirming Subjects and Finding Markets

“Simultaneous Publishing” is a system for researching your subject matter and drafting your marketing plan at the same time.

People all over the world are interested in your subject. They are the source for your research and they will be the market for your book. You will determine who your readers are, what your buyers want to read, and where to find them.

This is Social Networking meets Social Media. And it is all about your book.

Discover the fast, efficient and inexpensive way to:

Promote books--without leaving home.

Easily find and go directly to groups of people interested in your subject.

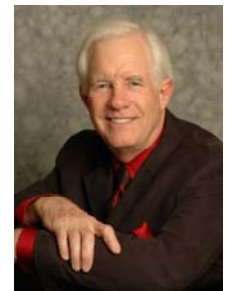

Pursue the Book Trade and the non-traditional markets electronically.

Find book researching and selling opportunities in forums, blogs, ezines, podcasts and social groupings such as LinkedIn, SelfGrowth, MySpace, Bebo, Facebook and Friendster.

Dan Poynter, author of 126 books, has been a social networker for nearly 40 years—since well before the Internet. Surprise! He will show you how to get in, take part, drive eyeballs to your website--and have a lot of fun.

The most expensive parts of book publishing are the mistakes! Save time money by learning from others.

P-66. Multimedia with handouts and resources. 60-90 minutes.
